[Opening statement]

"Good morning, Your Worship. My name is [name]. I am the registered owner of the vehicle, but I was not its driver on the date in question, and I'll be relying on a statutory declaration to that effect."

[Defence script - order of play]

1. Confirm your identity and ownership.
2. Tender the statutory declaration naming the driver.
3. Request the camera operating & calibration certificate in disclosure.
4. If the trial date is > 18 months out, raise s.11(b).

[Bring to court]

- Signed statutory declaration
- A copy of the Certificate of Offence
- Any disclosure the Crown provided

[Delivery]

Address the bench as 'Your Worship.' Speak slowly. Don't argue facts that aren't in dispute. Concede nothing about who was driving beyond the declaration.
